Fall Quarter

Orientation

The orientation program each year marks every student's first experience with college life.

Orientation serves to acquaint the new student with the community, the college, its faculty, its facilities, and its rules and regulations.

The orientation program also serves as a testing ground to give college officials their first look at the incoming freshman class.

About half of any given freshman class attend an orientation session during the summer quarter, but the largest gathering of first-time students always is the first three days of fall quarter.

Former students and returning students are used to ease the transition from high school to college. The first three days are hectic to say the least, but it isn't all work. A dance and the appearance of Kolisch served as entertainment for incoming freshmen, 1978.

Registration

Fall-quarter registration is always marked by long lines, short tempers, and a feeling that the entire college is heartless.

In the air is the mass confusion that comes with the opening of any school year. The lines to pay fees . . . The line to have yearbook and ID photos made . . . The line for a meal ticket . . . The line for a parking decal . . . The line to pull cards . . . The line to change cards that were just pulled . . . All are part of the registration process.

One thing is for sure. Most students agree - one time is enough. Next quarter, pre-registration is the only way!

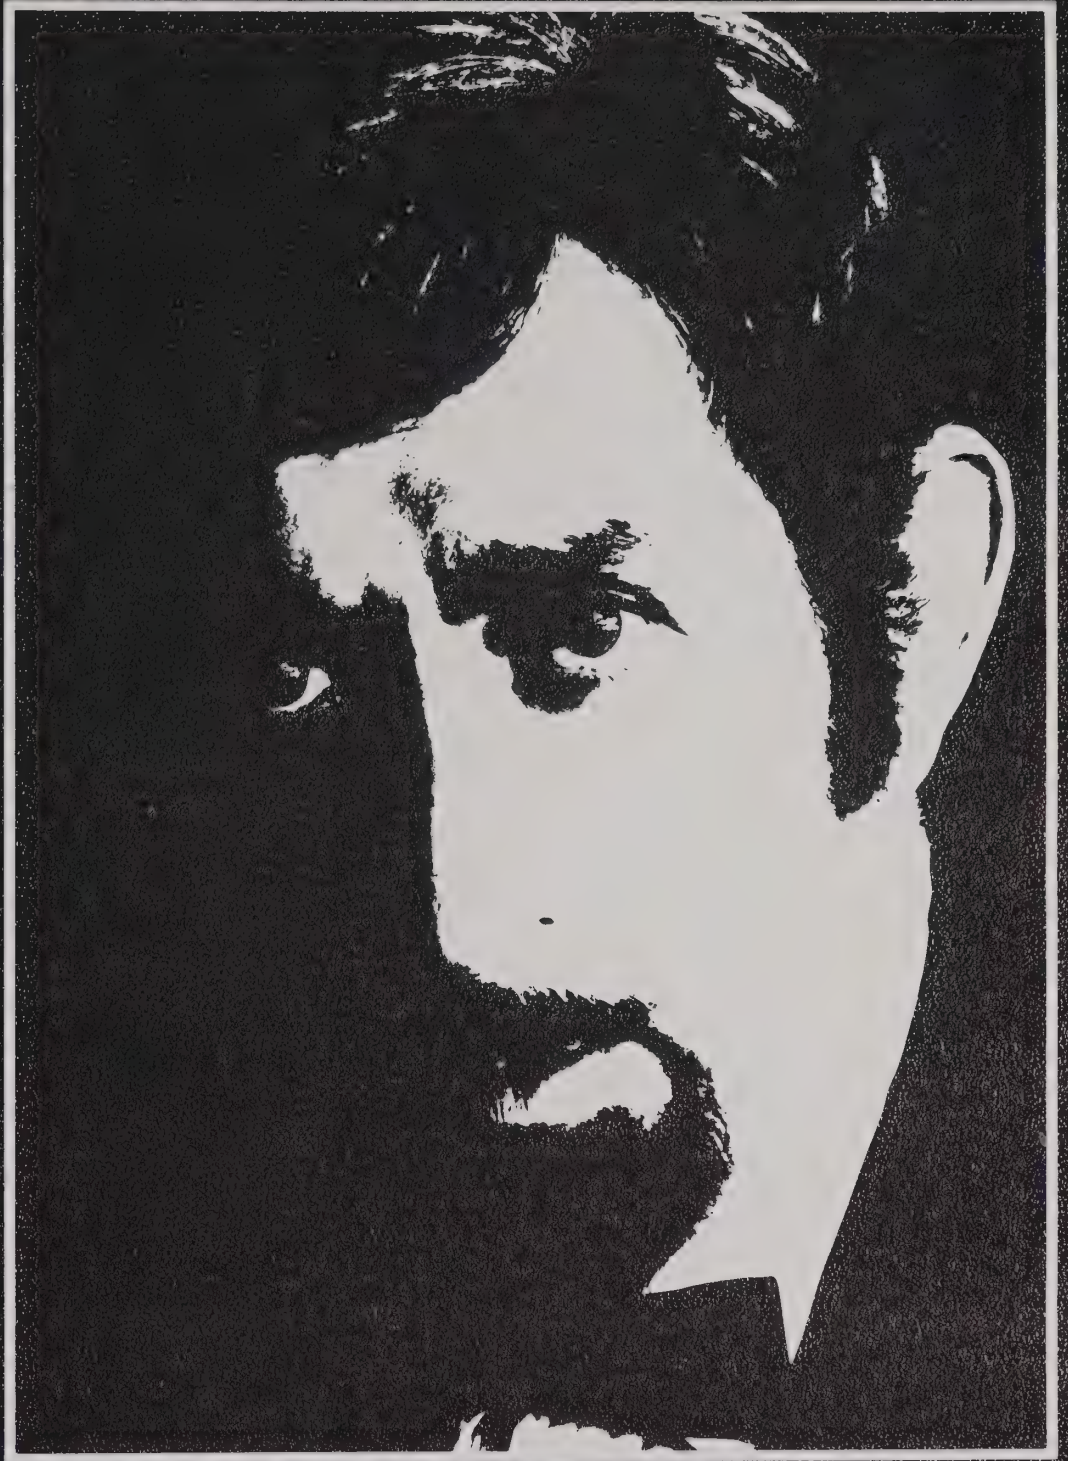

celebrity ball

Music to soothe the nerves of jittery freshmen - that is what Celebrity Ball provided to incoming MGC freshmen. Celebrity Ball provided music for the fall quarter orientation dance geared to kick off the 1978-79 school year.

KOLISCH

KOLISCH - billed as the world's fastest hypnotist, came to Middle Georgia College as the first entertainment attraction for the 1978-79 year. Kolisch came as entertainment for the incoming freshmen during orientation. A popular entertainment feature with MGC students since 1978, Kolisch provides a non-stop three-hour show that keeps his audience on the edge of their seats. He opens every show with a demonstration of ESP and mental telepathy. His ability to copy symbols and foreign languages while blindfolded can only be called amazing. As always, he completed his show by placing some 20 MGC students in a state of hypnotism and using these hypnotic trances to provide entertainment for his audience. AMAZING and BEWILDERING is the best way to describe KOLISCH.

Ensemble in Hawaii

The Middle Georgia College Ensemble ended their 1977-78 season and began their 1978-79 season with a "dream-come-true" tour of the Hawaiian Islands.

The trip was part business and part fun as the group made three singing engagements during the period of August 16-25. The appearances included a visit to the state capitol on Hawaii's admission day, a singing stop at the Hyatt Regency Waikiki and a stop at the Al Moana Shopping Center.

But business was not the only thing that the ensemble was in the island paradise for. They tried their hand at surfing, sailing, and Hawaii Luau. They also took a mid-night cruise of the waters around Waikiki and a trip to Pearl Harbor.

SGA Elections

Fall quarter marked the beginning of a new MGC year and the beginning of a new year for SGA. The first order of business for the Student Government Association was the election of senators for the 1978-79 year.

Elected as SGA senators for the 1978-79 term were: Darly Allard, Glen Ashe, Karen Baily, Vickie Brown, Gloria Carter, Lee Collins, Frank Fling, Alan Fordham, Alta Garrett, Kirk James, Cheryl Jaymes, Harrileen Jones, Lisa Lowe, Roy Martin, Terri McCollum, Tina Porter, Cheryl Posey, Robin Reeves, Donna Stroman, and Phillip Thurmond.

Officers elected for the 1978-79 year were elected during the spring quarter, 1978. SGA officers for the year were: Michael Reed - President; Allison Rackley - Vice President; Suzanne McNease - Secretary; and Mike Bedsole - Treasurer.

Fall Convocation

The 51st Annual Opening Convocation marked the official opening of the 1978-79 Middle Georgia College year.

Held on October 10, the event was marked with the pomp and pageantry of the formal occasion.

Guest speaker for the convocation was Mrs. Burma (Lvis) Stapp. Mrs. Stapp, a former Miss Georgia and a member of the Miss America committee, is a former Middle Georgia College coed. When Mrs. Stapp was an MGC student, she and her family were Warner Robins residents.

"Patience, kindness, unselfishness, absence of jealousy, gentleness, a good disposition, and forgiveness," Mrs. Stapp told the audience, "are the basic ingredients needed to understand love."

Mrs. Stapp and her husband, Steve, were on the MGC campus as part of Religious Emphasis Week.

Halloween Carnival

Presidents from MFC's various rounded up their members to sponsor a Halloween carnival. A ducking booth, a rapunzel walk, a spook house, a kissing meter, a big rhythm, and hootchie-moogie shows were scattered throughout Georgia Hall's basement. Ensemble performed for the afternoon affair. The evening climaxed with a costume dance with "Sweet Tooth" performing.

Halloween Dance

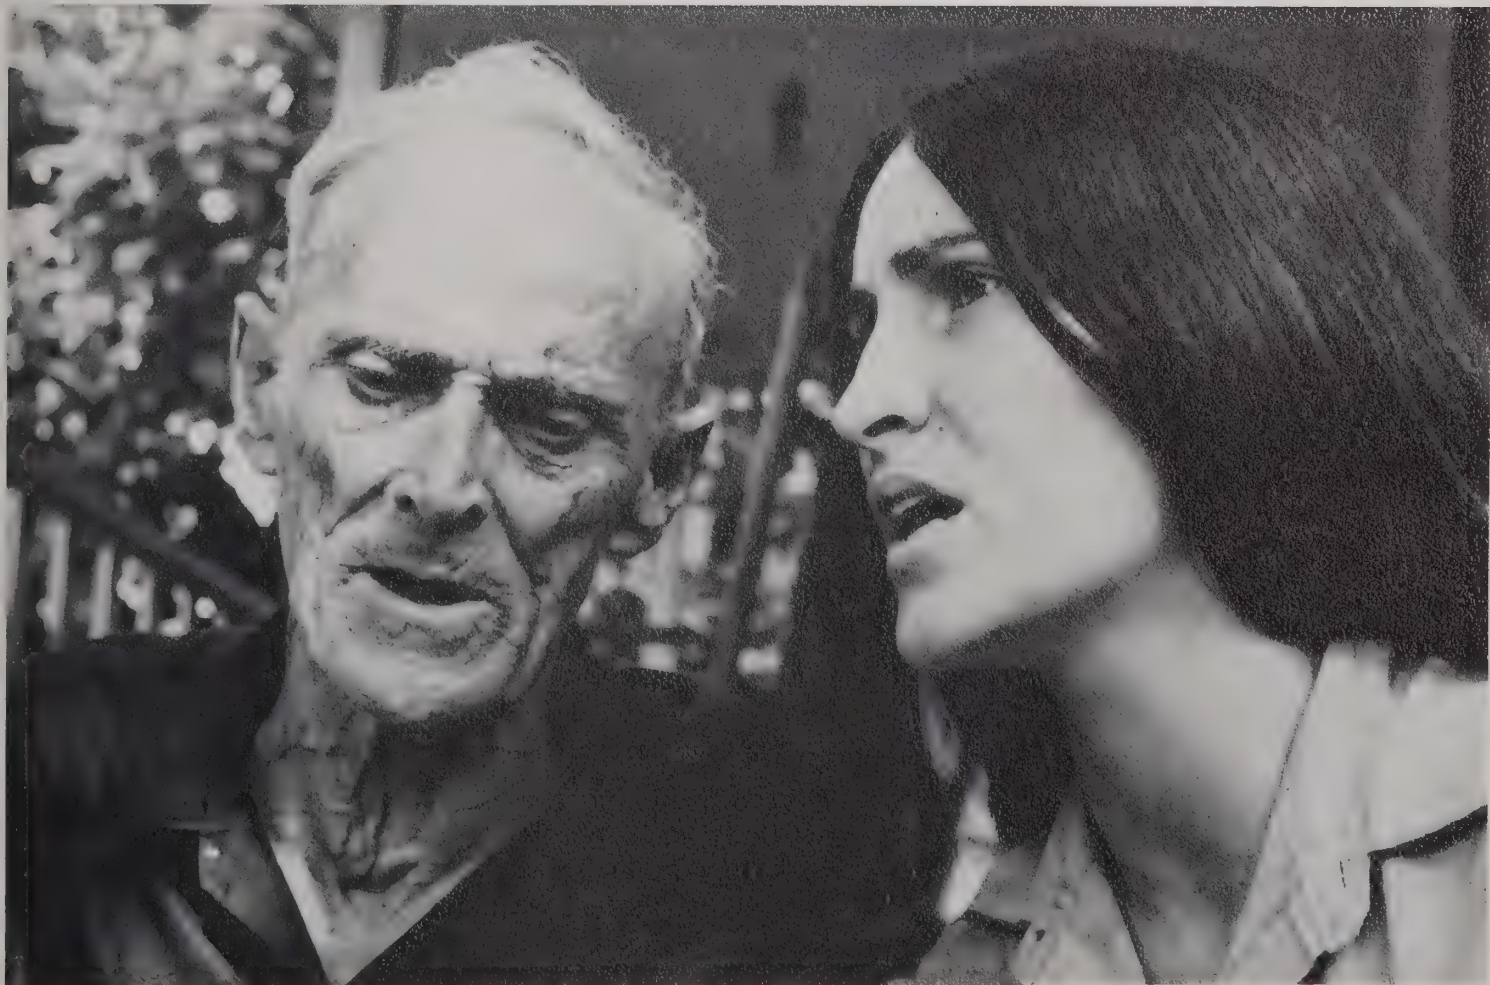

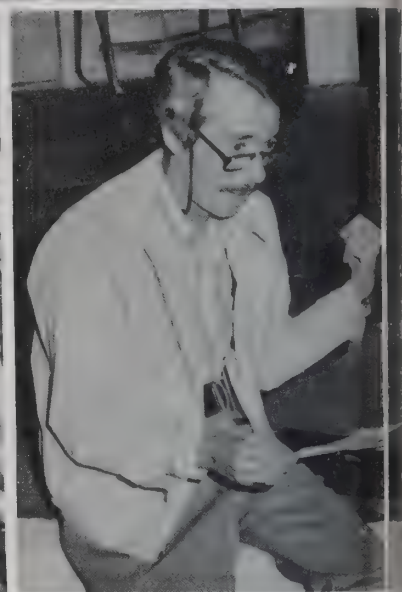

Grass Roots Festival

The Grass Roots Festival was the first offering of the year as the joint undertaking of the Middle Georgia College Fine Arts Series and the Women's Clubs of Cochran, Hawkinsville, and Eastman.

The performance included five different sections featuring black heritage, music of the West Virginia coal mining area, religious music, modern country, and honky-tonk.

Picnic

The fall presentation by the Middle Georgia College Players and the Department of Speech and Drama was "Picnic".

A comedy by William Inge, the play revolves around the adjoining backyards of two families in a small New England town.

Inge succeeded in portraying the prejudices, ignorances, and insights of the typical small town and its people in his play.

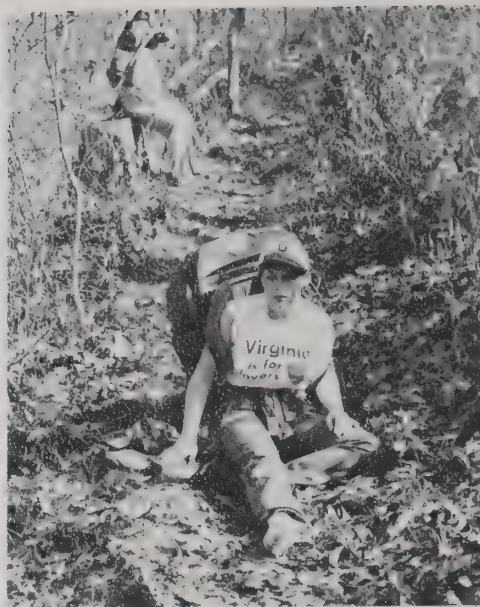

Most of the action of the play revolved around Hal Carter, played by Bruce Smith, and Madge Owens, played by Pixie Dials. Backing up the main plot was Suzanne McNease (as Rosemary Sydney) and Jeff Whitfield (as Howard Beven). Also appearing were Nancy Howard (as Helen Potts), Mary Kay Posteller (as Millie Owens), Tony Burnett (as Bomber), Ann Griner (as Flo Owens), Frank Fling (as Alan Seymour), Karen Manning (as Irma Kronkite), and Christie Greer (as Christine Shoenwalker).

The production was directed by Nelson Carpenter.

Camping

The first camping class at Middle Georgia College visited the North Georgia mountains during the fall quarter. Coach McPhaul's group of campers rested the first night at Unicoi Gap before their five-mile hike up Tray Mountain, part of the Appalachian Trail, on Saturday. Tired hikers expressed their eagerness to reach the top in statements like "When are we gonna get there?" "I'm tired!" and "My feet won't go!" The tent life was a new experience for many of the campers who found no electricity for blow dryers and curlers, things that go bump in the night, and no soft mattresses. The camping trip was a unique experience, but no one has ever been so happy to return to the MGC campus as the campers were.

Blood Drive

Every year the Red Cross Bloodmobile visits the MGC campus in the fall and in the spring. The drive was very successful this year with 118 pints donated fall quarter and 123 pints donated spring quarter. Clubs competed in the drive to get the majority of their memberships to contribute to this worthy cause. The Bloodmobile was an opportunity for members of the Cochran community to contribute blood, also.

Homecoming 1978-79

Anticipation for Homecoming 1978-79 began early in the week with dorm competing for best decorations.

Floats, clowns, girls, and a marching band paraded down the main street in Cochran Friday, November 17. The Warriors met with the Central Florida Patriots successfully Friday night.

"Starburst" played for the Homecoming dance Saturday night when Melan Riner was crowned Homecoming queen and Rosemary Brewton received maid of honor.

Guys and Dolls

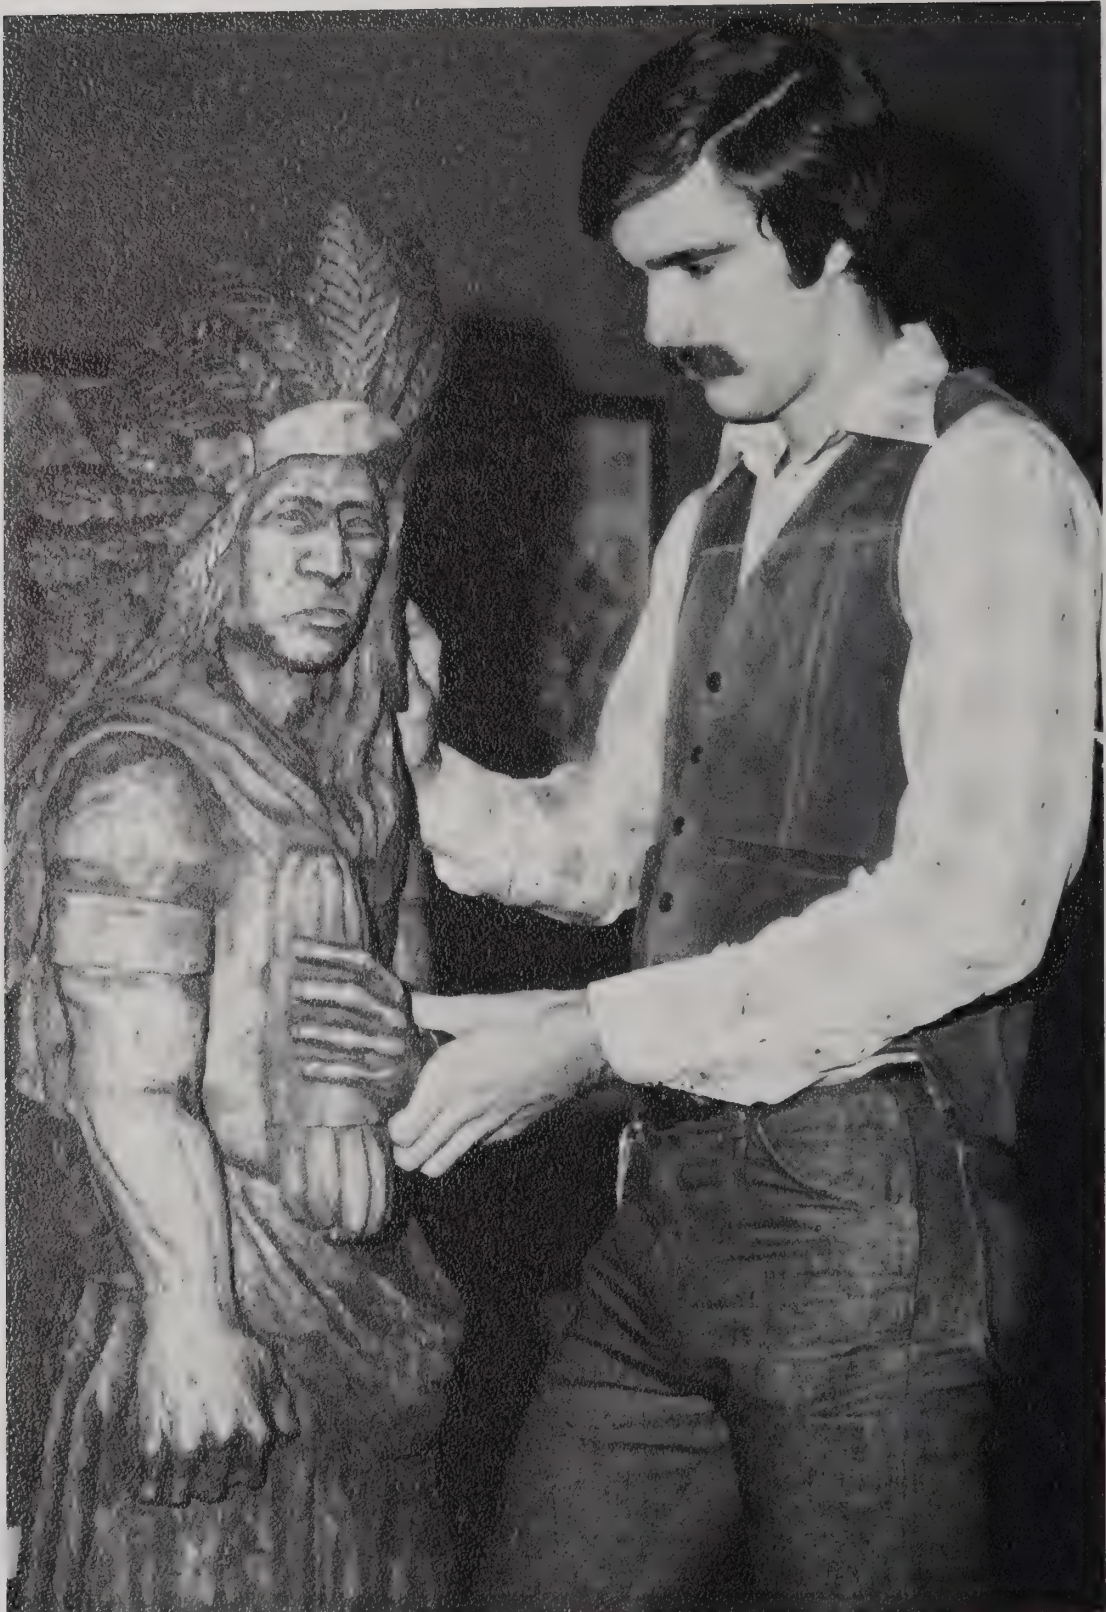

The 1979 musical production "Guys and Dolls," was sensationally presented by the Middle Georgia Players under the direction of Nelson M. Carpenter and the Choral Director, Myrtice Henderson.

The play, depicting the saucy lifestyle of New Yorkers, dealt with the ending of a fourteen-year engagement of Nathan Detroit and Miss Adelaide, portrayed respectively by Bruce Smith and Amy Bedingfield.

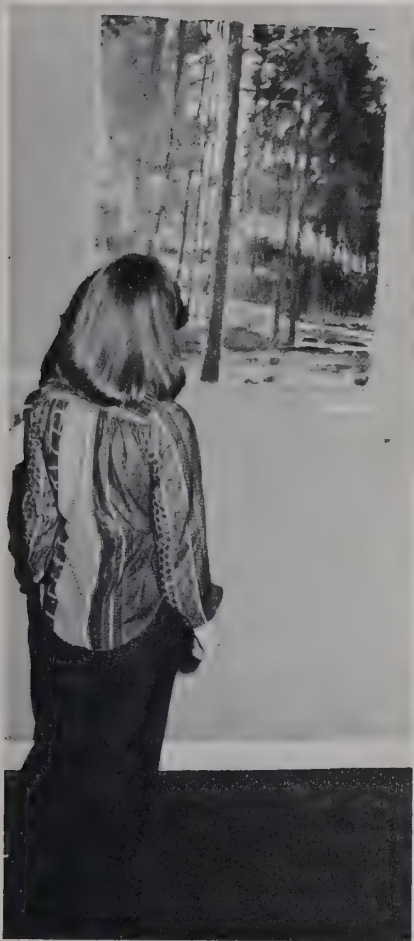

A focal point of the musical dealt with the crap games of Nathan Detroit and Sky Masterson, portrayed by Jeff Whitfield, which were held in the same area that spiritual meetings were conducted by Miss Sarah Brown, portrayed by Suzanne Jones. With the support of a large cast, "Guys and Dolls" proved to be a splendid production, receiving a standing ovation with the final performance.

MGC Art

An art exhibit was held during the month of February in Russell Hall. Paintings, sculptures, and other art objects done by Georgia artists and MGC students were shown. A tea was held for area artists and MGC faculty to preview the works. The show was on exhibit in the afternoon and during the winter musical, "Guys and Dolls."

Winter Festival Dance

Nightlife performed on January 19 for MGC students getting over their month long winter vacation. The dance was one of MGC's many activities which involved the student body during Winter Quarter. Many students turned out for the event in casual attire and enjoyed the festivities until midnight.

Barbara Nord

A program of violin was given on January 22, 1979 by Barbara Nord, a member of the Los Angeles Chamber Orchestra, accompanied by her husband, Edward Nord, Associate Conductor of the Birmingham Symphony. Some of her arrangements were: Sonatensatz by Brahms, Sonata No. 1 by Beethoven, March from "Love For Three Oranges" by Prokofieff- Heifetz and Danse Espagnole by de Falla - Kriesler.

The 1978 Kernel Takes 19 Georgia College Press Association Awards

For the Middle Georgia College Kernel, 1978 was an excellent year. The editors continued to produce the best paper ever at MGC and to win awards given state wide by the Georgia College Press Association.

Top awards for news and for sports coverage went to the Kernel for the 1978 editions as did the most improved newspaper award.

The Kernel took second place awards in features, layout and design, advertising and general excellence.

In addition to the general overall awards, the Kernel took nine individual awards for its staff members. Vickie Edwards and Randy Southerland took first place in objective reporting while Southerland and Lisa Wilson took second place in interpretive reporting. Karen Manning took a third place award in investigative reporting while Missy White received a third place in editorials. Billy Gates received a second place in sports writing. Lisa Wilson took a first place in entertainment and Budd Covington took a third place in feature writing.

Missy White took second place in the annual writing contest.

The total number of awards - 19 - marked the largest number of awards ever won by the paper in a single year.

Snow

In February showers of ice and sleet poured onto the town of Cochran and surrounding areas, thus necessitating the shutdown of businesses, factories, and public schools including Middle Georgia College. MGC students on campus were not confined by the snow. They enjoyed snowball fights, sliding down the hill on cafeteria trays, and sliding and spinning through vacant parking lots in their cars.

Warrior Basketball

For the 1978-79 Warrior season, the Warriors just couldn't seem to put things together as they did in 1977-78 when they were state and region champs and ninth in the country.

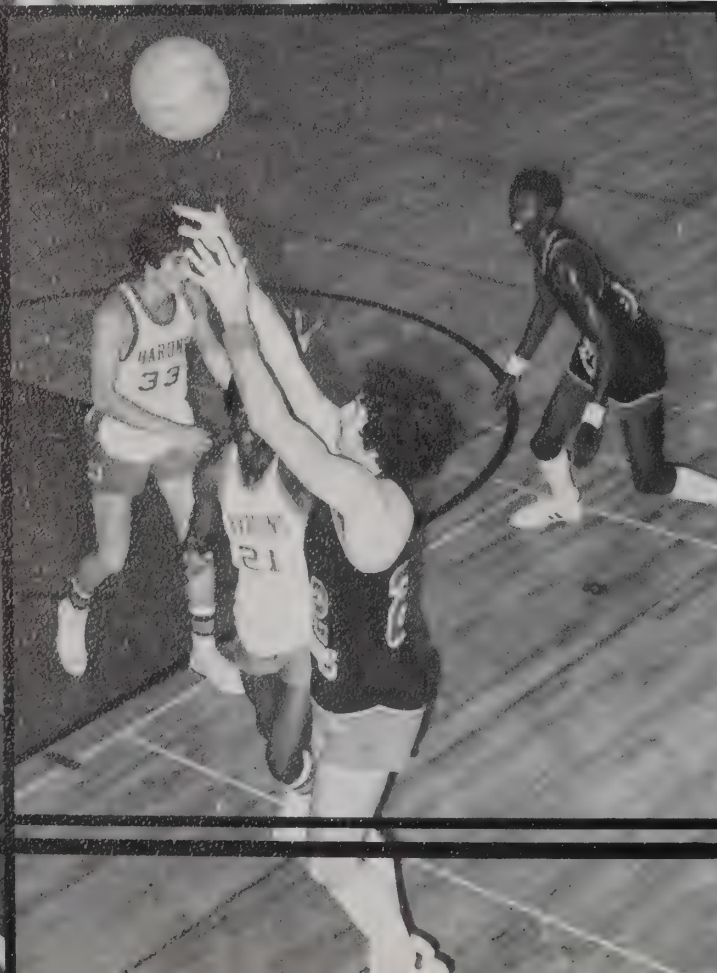

The 1978-79 season ended with a 17-11 record and 10-10 in the conference.

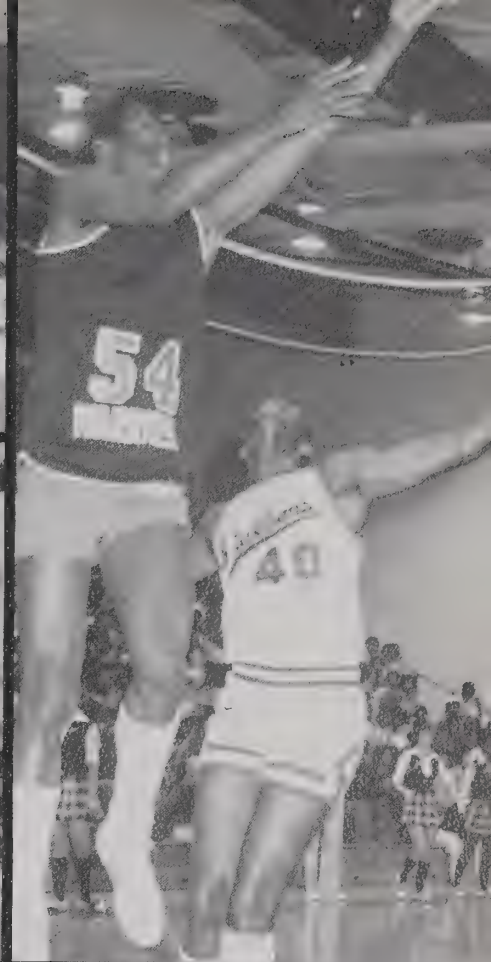

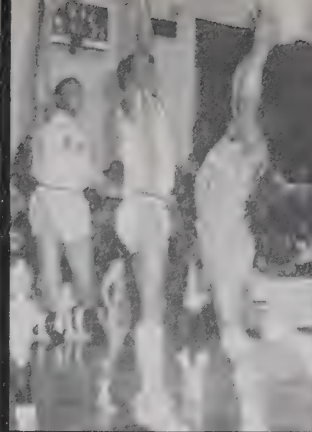

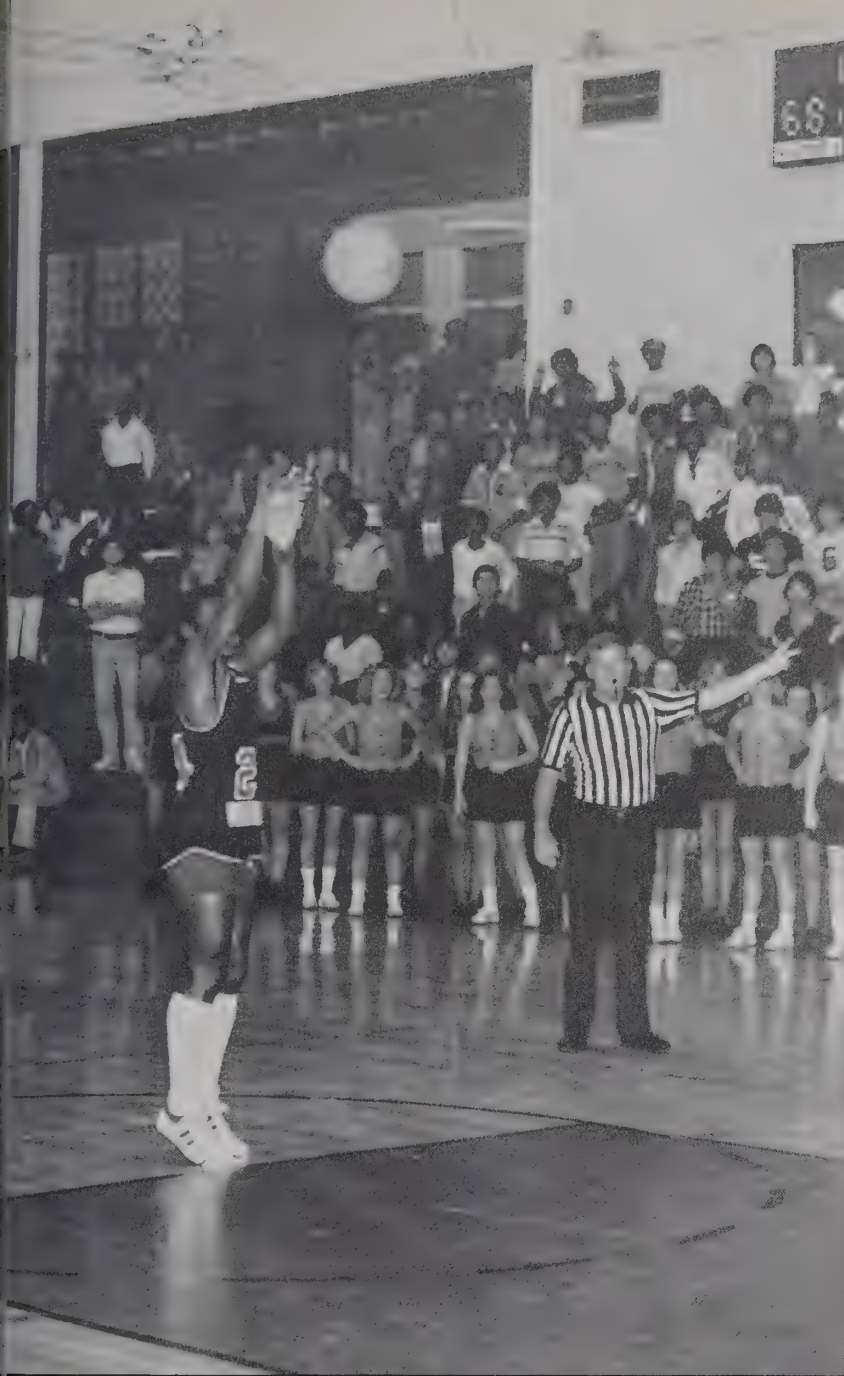

They were up, and they were down, but the Warriors never really found what they were looking for. On paper, though, they were great. The Warriors out scored their opponents by an average of 86 points to 82 points in the season. At one time during the season, the Warriors had dropped something like seven games by only a total of nine points.

Things just didn't work for the Warriors and Coach Ben Rogers. Early in the season, Rogers said that to be a winner, he needed to develop a good defense and improve his rebounding. Neither developed.

It was a good year, though, for the Warriors and especially for Mark Davis. Davis was leading scorer, All-Region, and the Atlanta-Tipoff Club's junior college "Player of the Month" for January.

A 17-11 season is never something to be laughed at. It did give the Warriors a chance at a state title, but they fell to the wayside of more powerful teams in the state.

Lady Warriors

The Middle Georgia College Lady Warriors were called "unbelievable" for their 1978-79 season. They came into the season as the cinderella team in the state and ended the season with a 19 - 10 season record.

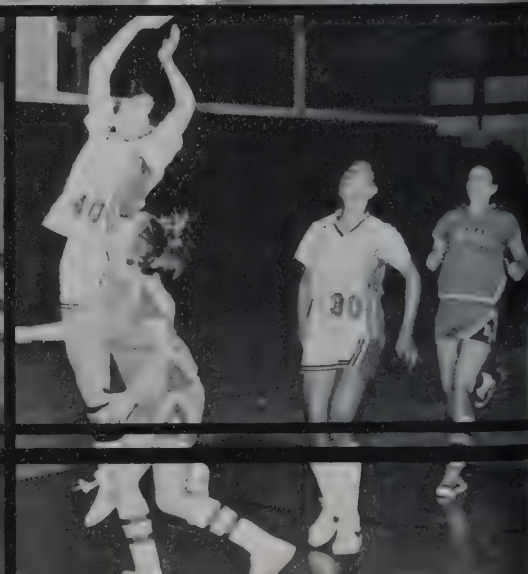

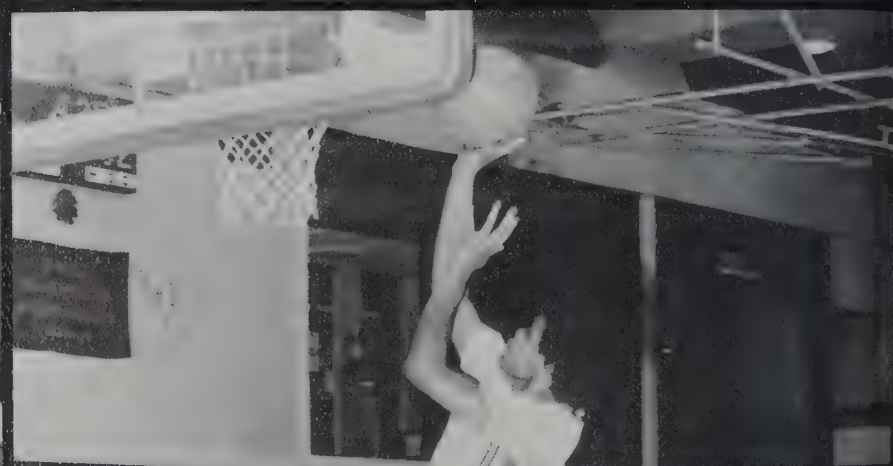

Why should this be so unusual? The Lady Warriors came into the 1979 season with only one returning sophomore, Alecia Bell, and a group of freshman who had never seen college action. Added to the fact that the 1977-78 Lady Warriors had their worst season ever with a 6-12 record, the '79 team had everything working against them.

"They were just unbelievable," Lady Warrior Coach Al Jones said. "They really played their hearts out for Middle Georgia and it showed."

Going into the state finals, MGC was regarded as one of the favorites. They finished the playoffs with a fourth place win giving the Lady Warriors one of their best season records ever.

Alecia Bell and Georgia Pope were named All-State and All-Region players for their efforts. Bell and Mary Carr took All-Tournament honors for the state playoffs.

All and all, the 1979 Lady Warriors season was something else.

The 1979 season for women's tennis at Middle Georgia was nothing more than "mediocre". With a season record of 3 and 7 the women's tennis team finished in fifth place in the state out of seven teams. The three wins for the women came against arch rival ABAC, Young Harris and Wesleyan. According to Coach Glenna Morlock, the season was a rebuilding season with most of her girls incoming freshmen with very little experience. She added that the 1980 team should be very good because most of the team members would be back for another season. Lynn Littlefield took honors as women tennis' MVP with her season record of 5-2. Page Cummings, a sophomore, used her leadership experience to give the team much needed help during the 1978-79 season.

Sports

Golf

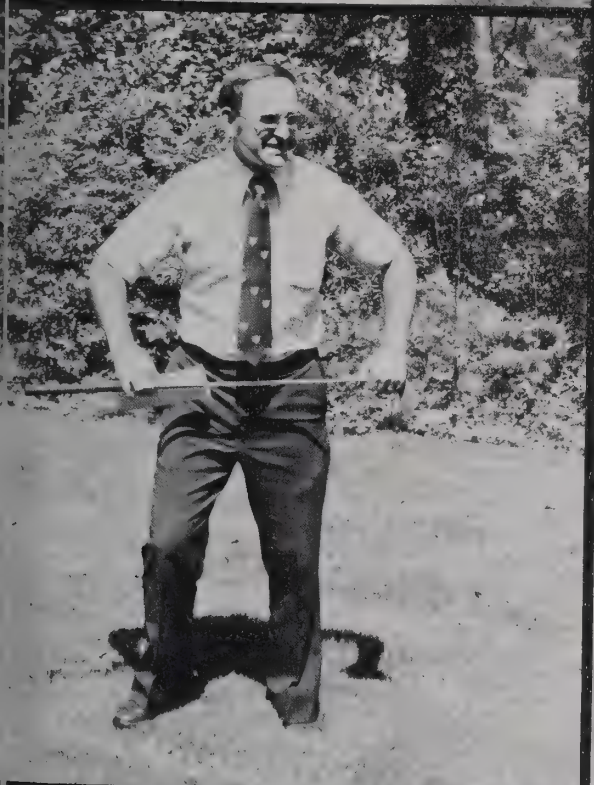

Ronald Bracewell, Jr., Robert Crider, Benny Bowen, Donnie Berry, Coach Ronald Bracewell, (not shown) Chris Holland.

The Middle Georgia College Golf team began the 1979 season with only two returning players. Benny Bowen, the 1978 MVP, and Chris Holland were the only two returning players.

During the season matches with Mercer, Gordon Junior, and Oxford, Bowen was voted MVP for the 1979 season.

In Region XVII play in Athens, the Warrior team took a fifth place state finish.

When the Middle Georgia College Warrior baseball team finished fall practice, Coach Robert Sapp called it "mediocre at the most."

Little did Coach Sapp know at that time that his "mediocre" Warriors would be holding the title of Number 1 Junior College Baseball Team in the Nation before the 1979 season was over.

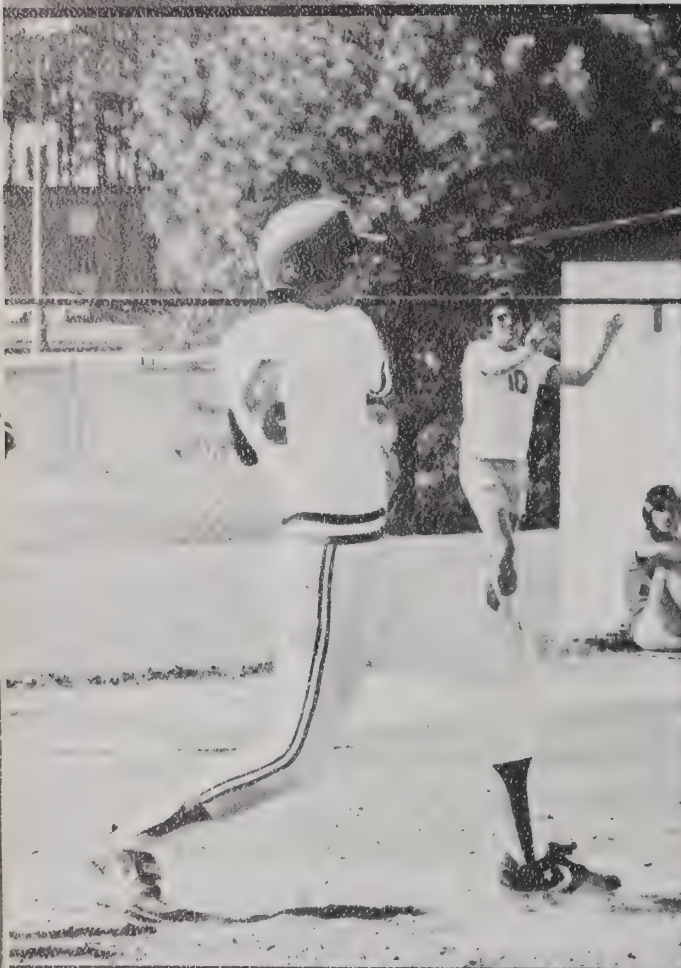

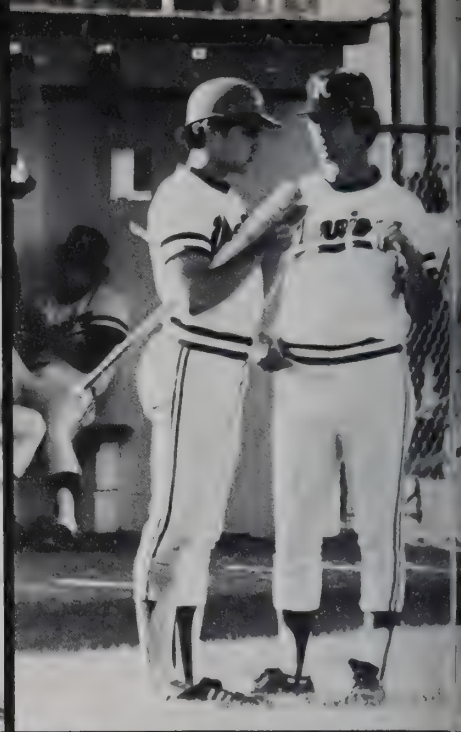

The Warriors finished regular season with a 36 - 7 record and 9 - 3 in the conference. They went to the state playoffs as the favorite team, but still no one gave them much chance of taking it all in Colorado.

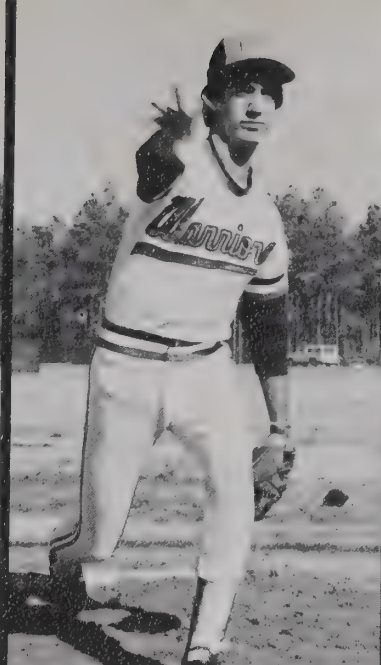

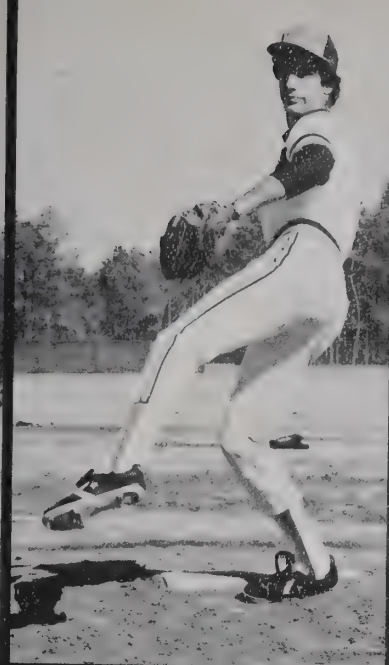

The Georgia division of the nationals is traditionally a tough division. MGC, Brewton Parker, DeKalb South and DeKalb North all saw victory in their eyes as they headed for Statesboro in mid-May. MGC, though, emerged victorious. GEORGIA'S NUMBER 1 BASEBALL TEAM FOR 1979.

The next stop on the road to the national title was the southeastern playoffs in Valdosta against the best of Georgia, Florida and Alabama. At that points, odds were not with the Warriors. All three states have good teams, but Georgia was thought to be the least threat of all three teams.

The Warriors had little trouble with either team and it was on the Grand Junction, Colorado, on the march toward a national tournament victory.

Dennis Shouse, Anthony Pendino, Mike Swain, Neal Kuglar, Derriel Baker, and Jerome Whitfield all collected SE tournament all-team honors for their efforts.

The night was a taste of the American Southwest in music. The boys gave a five section program ranging from classical to western to popular songs.

The Seven-Year Itch

The Middle Georgia Players presented as the Spring Quarter drama production "The Seven Year Itch." The plot is based on the romantic fantasies of a man, Richard Sherman, portrayed by Jeff Whitfield, who fancies himself as one of the world's greatest lovers. But soon, true reality creeps into the play and brings Richard back to his feet. The part of Richard's main fantasy lover was played by Joyce Rutherford. Richard's wife, Helen, was played by Suzanne McNease. Other members of the cast were Michael Sapp, Mary Kay Mosteller, Tami Harmon, Pixie Ryals, Brad McMahan, Bruce Smith, Richard Kelley, Roger Smith, Christie Greer, and Karen Manning. Dr. John F. Attruby directed the production.

Ms. Ebony

The first Ms. Ebony was held on April 29. Judging was based on casual wear, evening gown, and talent competition. Myderia Sneid was selected as Ms. Ebony 1979. Runners up were 1st Louraine Hamilton, 2nd Debra Bussey, 3rd Einita Mason, and 4th Dawn Bowser.

International Relations Bazaar

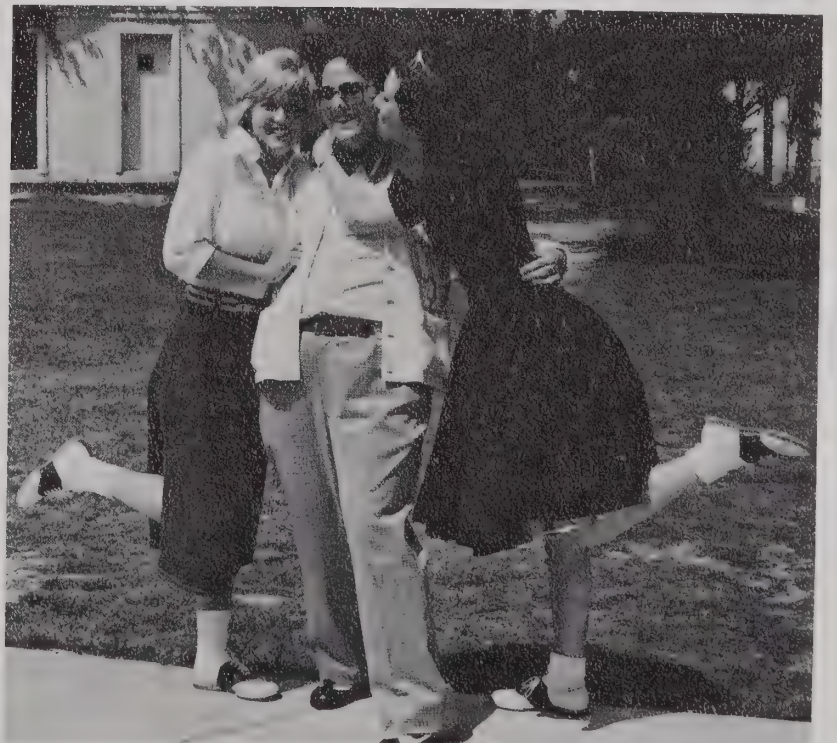

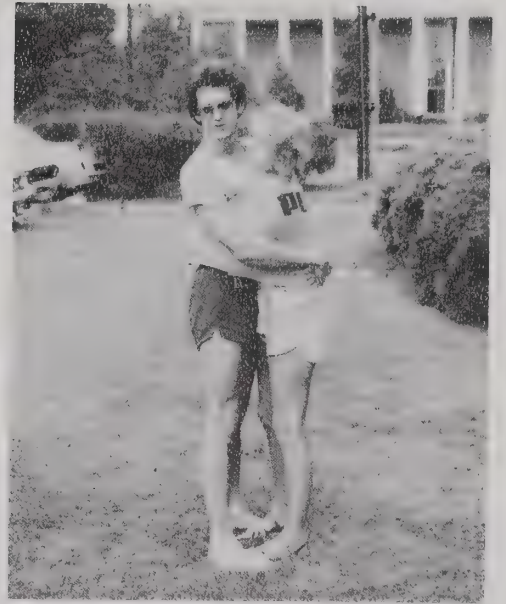

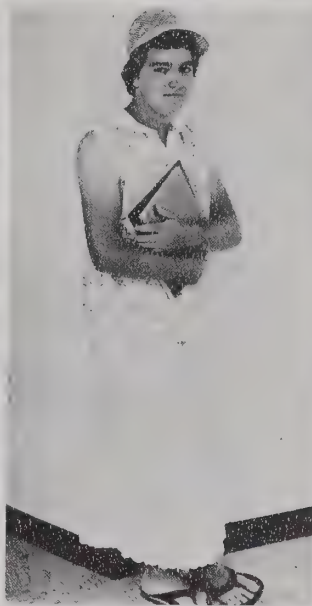

The International Relations Club sponsored the International Relations Bazaar which featured foods, music, articles of clothing, and posters from the various countries of the world. The ensemble performed at the event.

Spring Fling

Spring Fling week featured a maze of events in which everyone participated. Dress-up days included 50's day, reverse day, hat and T-shirt day, and grub day. Field activities such as a three-legged race, an egg toss, a frisbee throw, and a wheelbarrow race were held on Friday and Saturday. The Gong Show, movies, and a dance were night features.

1979 Reverse Beauty Pageant

The pageant of beauty, Miss Spring Fling, kicked off the evening Spring Fling activities. MGC's lovely men displayed their femininity in swimsuit, talent, and evening gown competition. The fairest of them all was Stephanie Humphrey, Miss Spring Fling 1979. Pauline Chappel was first runner-up and Royeen Jean Martin was second runner-up.

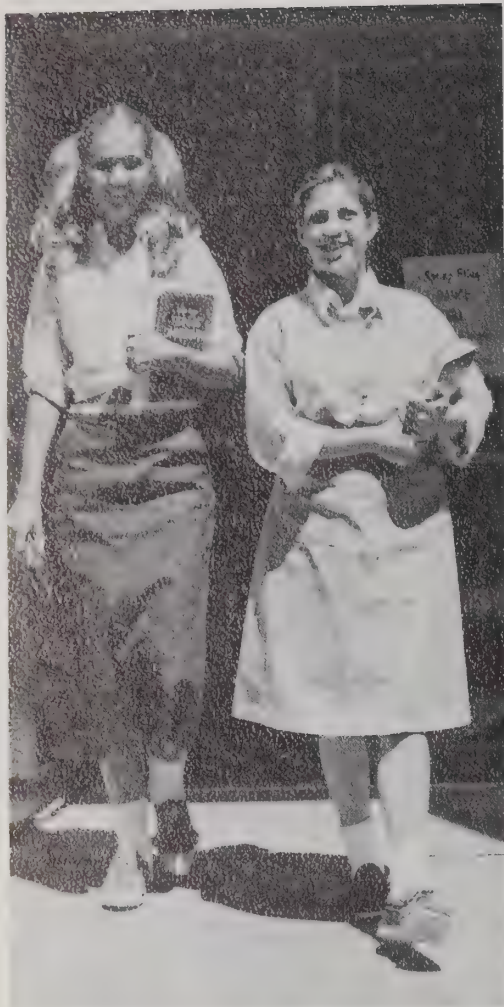

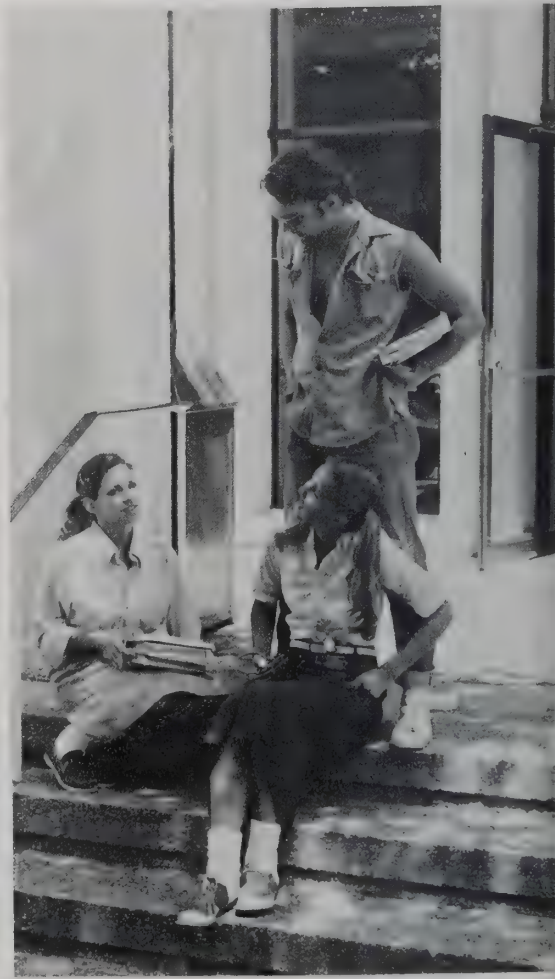

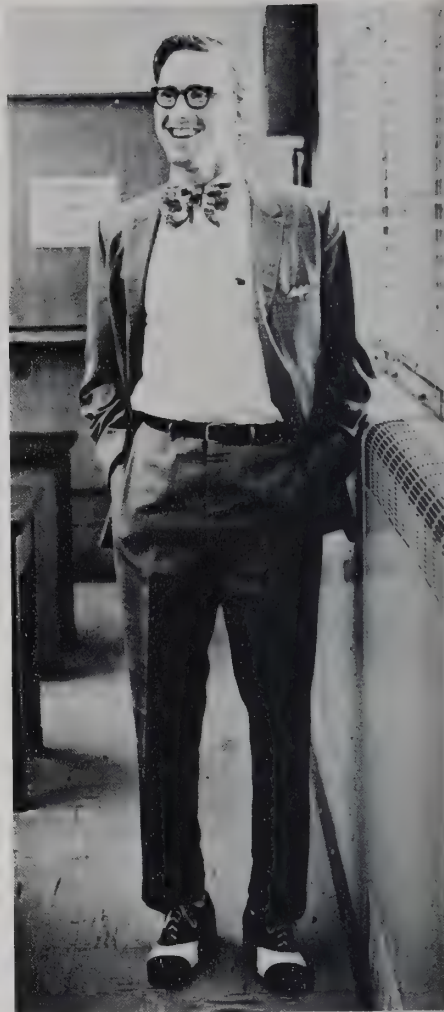

The Gong Show

Along with each Spring Fling comes the annual MGC Gong Show. The show was a riot (which is what they almost had on their hands as the Haynes Hall Hookers were gonged off the stage.) The show, though, did provide a medium to show the talents that many MGC students have (or didn't have). First place award went to Billy Pittmen. Harrileen (lightfoot) Jones was first runner up with her clogging act (or was it an attempt to kill the roaches of Walker Hall?) Judges for the event were "Hairless McCammon", Allison J. P. (Ravishing) Rackley, and just plain David Blackard.

Warriors are No. 1

Warriors win top Baseball Honors

"It was unbelievable," Coach Robert Sapp said. With a season record of 42-8 and the state and southeastern titles already under their belts, the Warriors had but one title left to capture. NATIONAL CHAMPS. As the tournament began on May 26 in Grand Junction, Colorado, the Warriors were still being given little or no chance to take home the title.

After making short work of unbeaten Triton, Illinois, 16-4, the Warriors became the team to beat. Panola, Texas, the team that would come back to haunt the Warriors in later play, fell in the third round 16-4. Brookdale, New Jersey, went down 12-4 on Tuesday and the Warriors seemed unbeatable. Yavapai, Arizona, gave the Warriors a scare on Wednesday but the bottom of the 9th, Tommy Dunbar trapped it up for the Warriors with a 7-6 score.

Once beaten Panola put a sudden halt to the Warriors on Thursday with a 2-4 loss. That threw the tournament into sudden death, but Panola went home beaten as the Warriors took them 8-4 to bring home the title for Georgia.

MGC set a national record for the most runs in the tournament with 59. The win marked the first junior college victory for a Georgia team. (MGC had one previous trip to Grand Junction in 1975 when they placed 3rd.)

The Warriors ended their season with a 47-9 record. All-national tournament team members included Derrell Baker, Dunbar, Jerome Whitfield, and Dennis Alvarez. Jerry Haldeman was chosen best defensive player and Dunbar, with his .444 batting record was tournament MVP.

One other honor returned with the Warriors. MGC Coach Robert Sapp was named the National Coach of the Year.

When the Warriors arrived at the Atlanta airport with the spoils of their trip, they were greeted by over 100 MGC students, administrators, and Cochranites. They were escorted back to Cochran where the entire town turned out to welcome their team home in victory.

From "not more than mediocre" to "doesn't have a chance at the title" to national champs, 1979 was a year that will go down in the Warrior record books. The Warriors did it in the mountains in 1979.

Retirees

Two MGC faculty members and one staff member retired during the 1978-79 year. Wallace Bagley, ast. professor of physical science retired winter quarter after 12 years at MGC. Beverly Evans, ast. professor of history retired in June after 13 years. "Ma" Lois Hogan retired after eight years as a house director and infirmiry assistant.

Commencement

- June 8

June 8, 1979 marked the beginning of a new life for 201 MGO students as they received associate degrees in art, science, business administration, and one-year career course certificates. June 8, 1979 was Commencement, 1979 - the beginning. Many students went on to four-year schools and others were off on the beginning of their chosen careers. It was though, the end of two years of study at Middle Georgia College. Dr. Earl Strickland, President of Wesleyan College in Macon, gave the commencement address and challenged each graduate to make the best of his or her life. Degrees granted by the college were presented to the graduates by Dean of Administration Fretwell Crider, and President Louis C. Alderman. Commencement - the beginning.

Two or three minutes - two or three hours,
What do they mean in this life of ours?
Not very much if but counted as time,
But minutes of gold and hours sublime,
If only we'll use them once in a while
To make someone happy - make someone smile.
A minute may dry a little lad's tear,
An hour sweep aside trouble of years.
Minutes of my time bring to an end
Hopelessness somewhere, and bring me a friend.

Memories make a yearbook and a college career.

I have many memories of the past five years of Middle Georgia College. Most of the memories are good - dorm life at Haynes Hall, working on the Hilltopper (which will mean more to everyone in later years), the understanding faculty, the friendly atmosphere, and the lovely campus. The bad memories are few -

the hard work and late night hours I have spent studying and working on the Hilltopper. Parking my car late at night along with other people from Haynes and East Women to avoid getting a traffic fine was not one of the good memories either. The future will prove that it was all worth it.

Change is inevitable in any college, and changes make memories.

MGC is a college of tradition. Many approve of the tradition, some accept it, and others want to change it drastically. It is impossible for anything or anyone to remain exactly the same as in years past. If changes did not happen, no improvements would be made, and no growth would occur. In any case, the changes made should be made gradually and in the interest of the majority.

Many, many long hours have gone into the production of this year's Hilltopper. I have enjoyed working with my staff and advisors to make this book a reality. I must personally thank Animal and Jimmy for their many hours of untiring work.

Producing a yearbook takes the skills of many talented people. One person, through his understanding, consideration, skills, and dedication, has put many hours of his personal time into this production. To him, I say thank you Ken Jaymes, for helping to make the Hilltopper a reality.

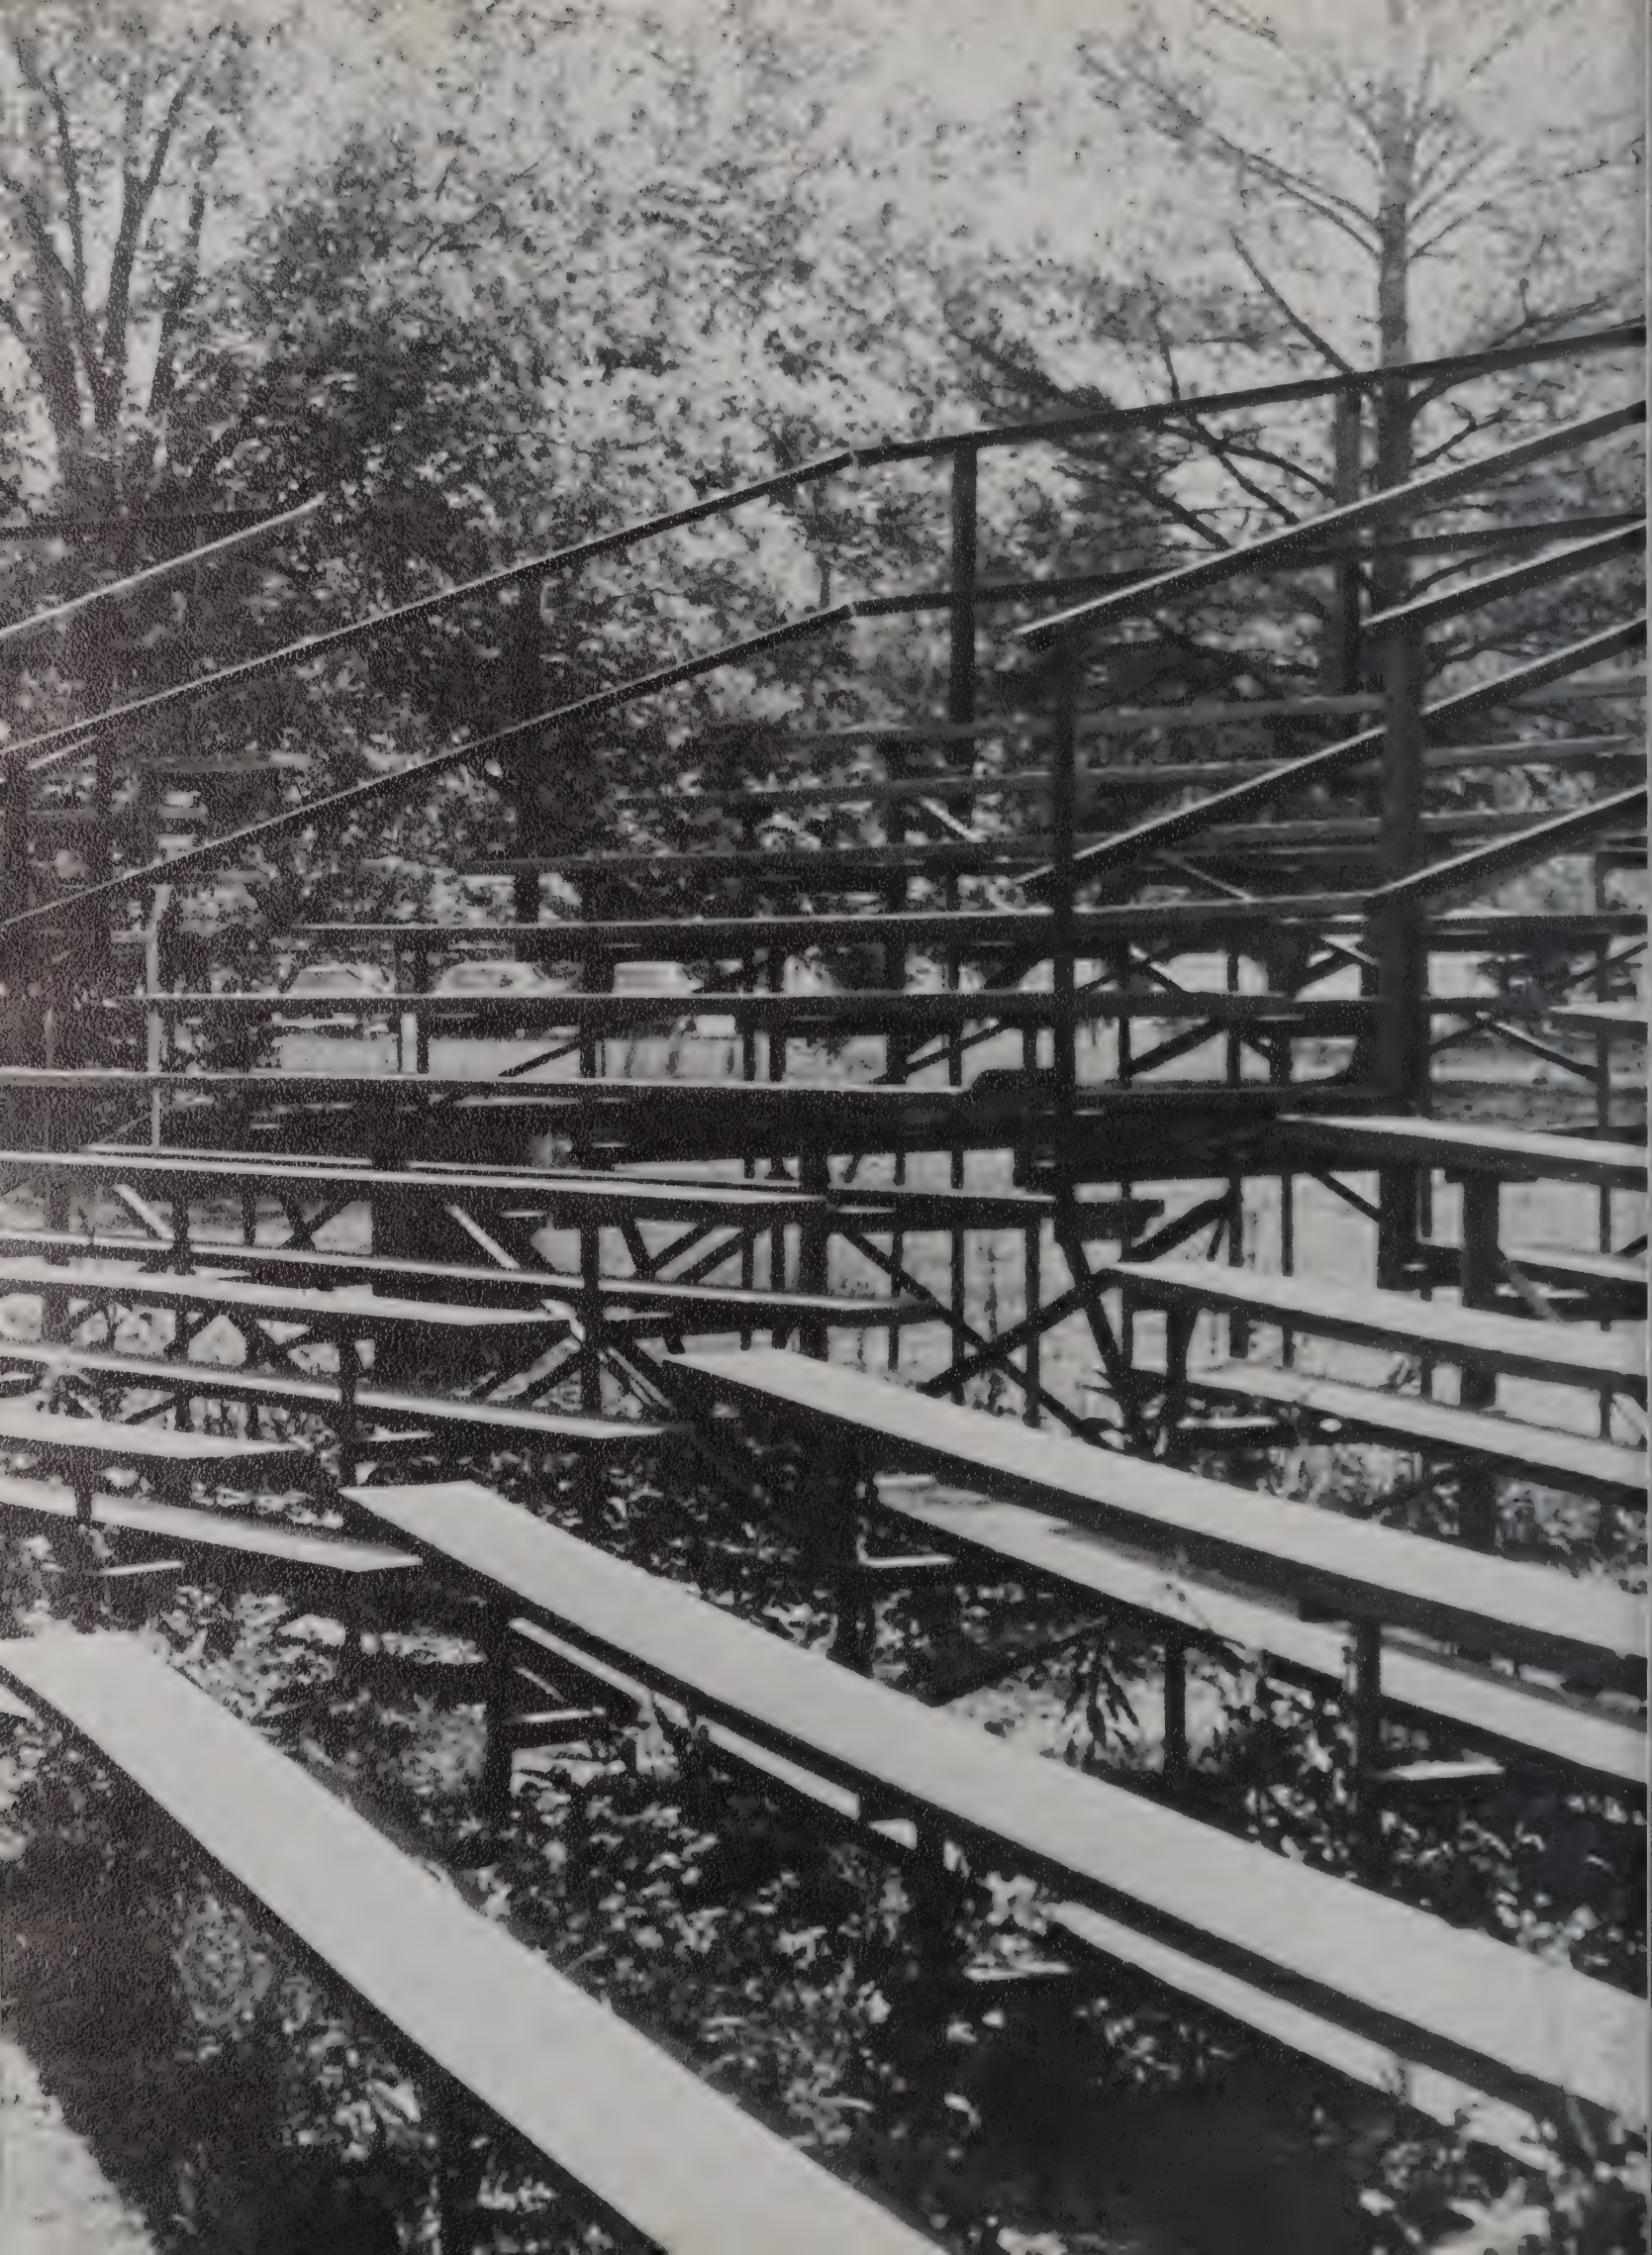

The 1979 Hilltopper staff hopes that in the years to come this book will strike fond memories of the good times and the bad times that we have shared during the 1978-79 year. We sincerely hope that as time and distance separates the friends and acquaintances that we have made at MGC, that this book will mean as much to you as it does to us.

Sincerely yours,

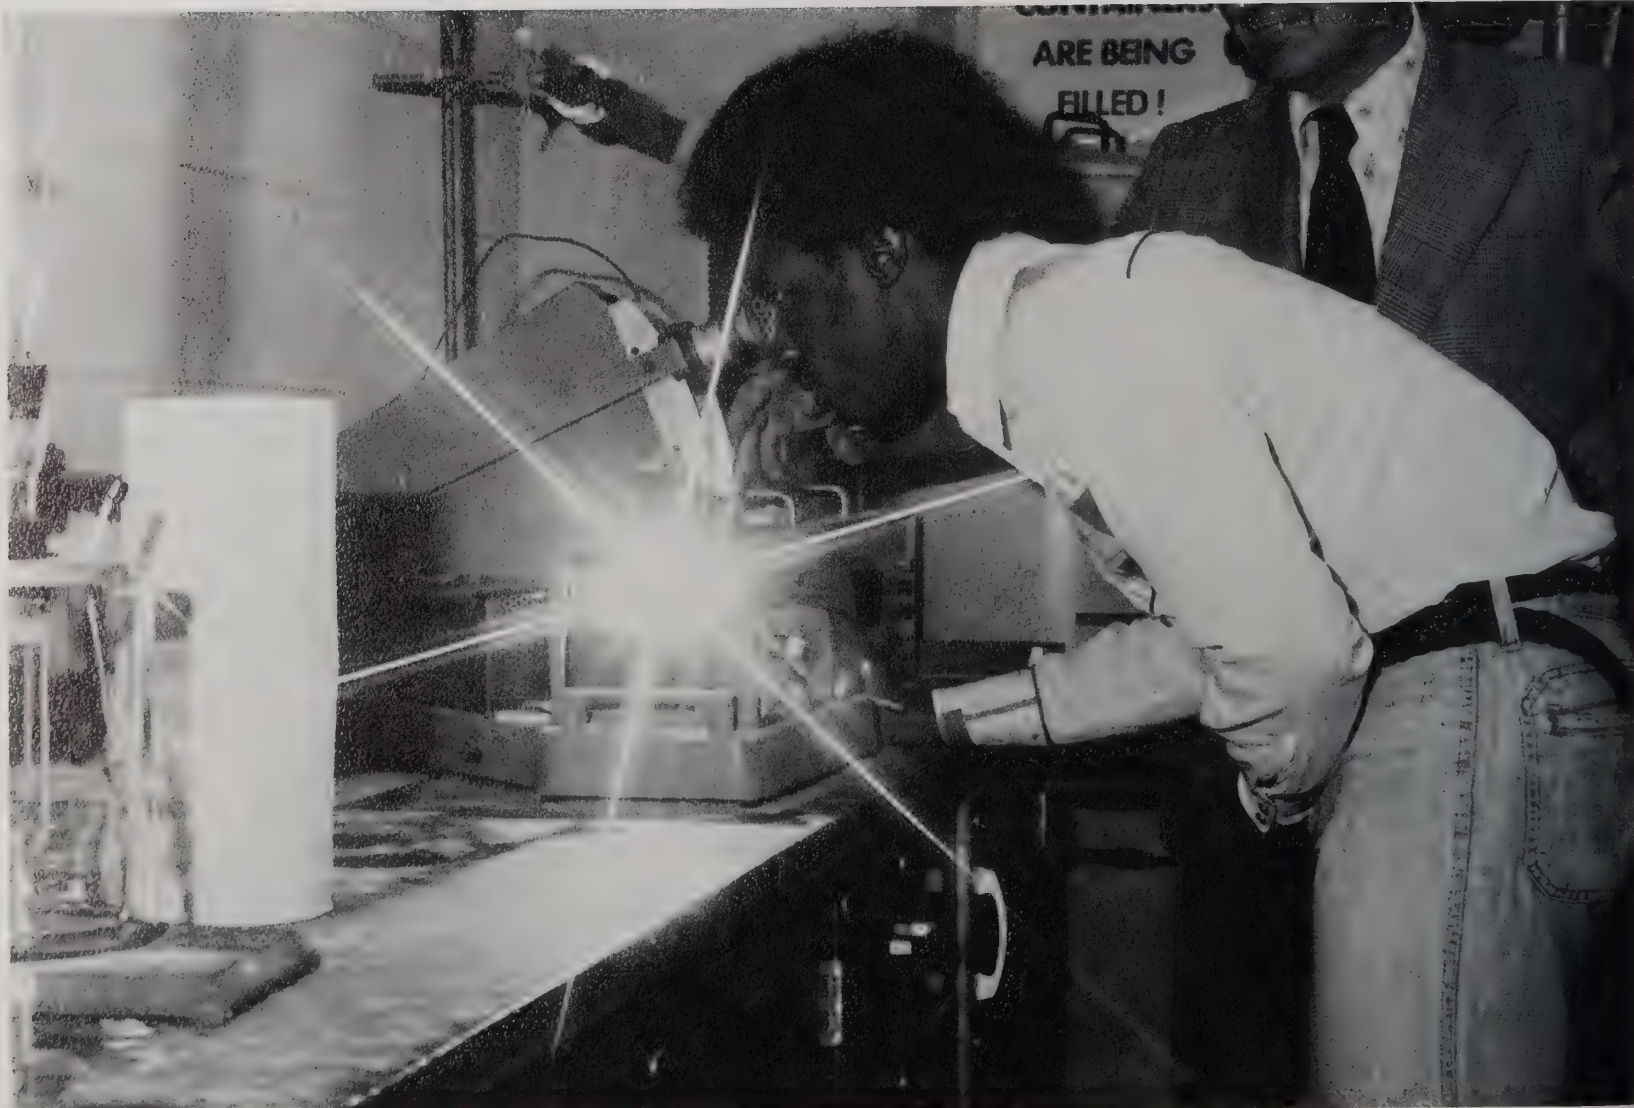

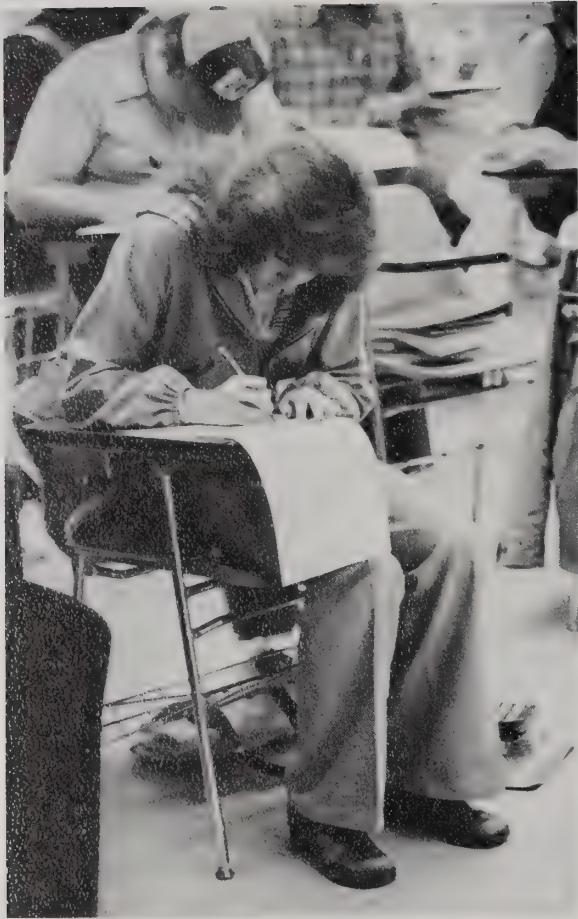

Gail Jones
